

75—Hailey Archer, P, PA Chaos (uncommitted)

Hailey is a 6-foot-1 right-handed pitcher who is the latest in a recent line of standout hurlers of Joe Spina's PA Chaos program which includes Maggie Balint, now at Oregon, and current junior Maddie Penta, who is committed to Auburn. Hailey throws a 65-mph fastball and has a very good screw, drop, curve, change and rise. She plays for Northern Burlington Co. Regional in Columbus, New Jersey where she was the Burlington County Player of the Year this year and has been a two-time 1st Team All South Jersey selection. The junior is drawing major interest from top programs in the Big Ten, SEC, Pac-12 and ACC because of her pitching skills as well as her 4.2 GPA in high academic programs at her school.

