Elanyi is a high-level developing catcher known for her strong defensive presence behind the plate, elite arm strength, and quick release. She is difficult to run on and consistently controls the running game. Offensively, she demonstrates advanced pitch recognition and contact ability, producing at a high level against top national competition. Her versatility allows her to contribute at third base and in the outfield, while her leadership potential and softball IQ continue to grow through high-level travel and national play.
